- Animal Waste Ordinance fees have been adjusted for 2019, assuming a 2.5% rate of inflation and rounded to $5 increments.
- 2019 fee adjustments for engineering services are based upon hourly estimates of service costs and represent a portion of total costs incurred.
- Base fees have been established using the average number of soil test pits required for the different size categories of livestock facilities. Base fees assume up to 6 test pits for facilities with 0-649 AU, 8 test pits for facilities with 649-1000 AU, and 12 test pits for facilities > 1000 AU.
- Additional test pits may be required to meet tech guide standards. Fees for additional test pits cover up to 5 additional pits.
- Limited fee based engineering design services are available from the LCFM. These design services are limited to the site specific review and application of standard pre-designed and pre-approved engineered tanks and structures.
- Design review and inspection fees apply to facility designs completed by private sector engineers or other public agencies.
- Fees charged for annual nutrient management plan review will be assessed for all facilities subject to the Chippewa Co. Animal Waste Storage & Utilization Ordinance that were either newly permitted, constructed, or altered after December 31, 2018.
- Annual permit compliance monitoring fees will be assessed for all C.A.F.O.'s subject to the Chippewa Co. Animal Waste Storage & Utilization Ordinance that were either newly permitted, constructed, or altered after December 31, 2017.
- Late reporting fees will be charged to all active Farmland Preservation agreements, County Cost-share contracts, Animal Waste Storage & Utilization permits, and Non-Metallic Mine Reclamation permits, in circumstances where annual certification or submittal of supporting records is required, and where the material is not received by the established date.
