

The Western Region Recovery & Wellness Consortium (WRRWC) is a consortium of counties working together to improve the mental health and substance abuse service delivery system for public sector recipients.